A newsletter of ideas for UBC Sisters Committees to use to be more effective

Sisters in the UBC
Give & Receive

As we move into a new year, SIB Committees showcase their talents for helping others and getting recognition.

On the giving side, they helped kids, adults, and even assisted a nursing home.

As for receiving, Sisters used holiday parties and women’s day events to bring out celebrities and receive accolades. Check out the Boston SIB Committee – they covered ground in all these areas.

Additional notable news comes from the Pacific Northwest; the Seattle SIB Chair got some awesome recognition and a new committee was just launched.

Make sure you click the here links to read the great stories and see the wonderful pictures. We think you will be pleased and proud.

Keep it up Midwest & South!

Western District

The Western District has a new SIB Committee in Anchorage, Alaska!

Jenne Bake is the chair. Attendees at their first meeting included 10 of the 12 Sisters in the Council, and North Puget Sound SIB chair, Lisa Marx.

The meeting was productive and everyone is excited about working together on common goals.

Welcome Anchorage!

In the Pacific Northwest Regional Council, the Seattle SIB Committee has some great news.

Their chair, Saskia Brown, was selected as Tradeswoman of the Year by the Women in the Trades Organization. Saskia has achieved a lot on her job and done a lot for her community. She has been praised by her employer, coworkers, and organization members.

Click here to see Saskia and read more about her accomplishments.

In other news, Sisters helped their community by spreading gravel at a homeless “tiny house encampment.” The event organizers were very appreciative and the Sisters were happy to help.

Congratulations Saskia and Seattle!
